Enhancement in freedom fighters' pension

†2350. SHRI DATTA MEGHE: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that freedom fighters in the country are facing economic crises with present pension, as prices are rising continuously;

(b) if so, whether Government are considering to raise their pension;

(c) if so, whether Government would also consider to offer them any special package; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MANIKRAO GAVIT): (a) to (d) The amount of pension was initially Rs. 200/- per month. After periodic enhancement, the amount was fixed at Rs. 1500/- per month with effect from 2nd October 1994. In August 1997, on the occasion of the 50th Anniversary of our Independence, the amount of pension was doubled. Besides, pension was also linked with the consumer price index. In February 2005, basic pension of unmarried & unemployed dependent daughters of deceased freedom fighters was enhanced from Rs. 600/- per month for the eldest and Rs. 350/- per month each for the other two to Rs. 1500/- per month each for all three. In August 2005, the basic pension of freedom fighters and spouses of deceased freedom fighters was enhanced by Rs. 1000/- per month with effect from 15th August 2005.

Recently, the basic pension of freedom fighters and spouses of deceased freedom fighters was again enhanced by Rs. 2330/- per month, so that the total pension, inclusive of dearness relief, becomes Rs. 10,001/- per month. The date of giving effect to this enhancement is 2nd October 2006 (which is the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, the founder of Satyagaraha movement and the Father of the Nation).

Apart from pension, freedom fighters are also provided the following facilities by the Government of India:—

(i) Free railway pass (1st Class/AC Sleeper) for freedom fighter and widow, along with a companion, for life;

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.
